Subject: Oxford University Press India Higher Education eBooks

Sir/Madam,

Greetings from Oxford University Press!

Oxford University Press is one of the global leaders in publishing in Engineering, Management, Science text books. It partners with world-class authors, from leading scientists and researchers, to scholars and professionals operating at the top of their fields. With offices in all major countries and leading cities in the world including New Delhi in India. Oxford University Press has been able to provide local expertise and support to our editors, societies and authors, as well as tailored, efficient customer service to our library colleagues in institutions around the world.

Oxford University Press (OUP) is a department of the University of Oxford. It furthers the University's objective of excellence in research, scholarship, and education by publishing worldwide.

OUP is the world's largest university press with the widest global presence. It publishes in many countries, in more than 40 languages, and in a variety of formats –print and digital. OUP products cover an extremely broad academic and educational spectrum, and it aims to make content available to users in a format that suits them best.

In fulfilling the Press's objective to further research, scholarship and education, OUP India today develops path-breaking digital and integrated learning solutions, while continuing to publish over 400 new books and revised editions every year. OUP India's publishing programme covers school courses, higher education texts, academic and reference works, titles of general interest, bilingual dictionaries, atlases, adult ELT materials, and digital and assessment products.

Established in 1912, OUP India has grown to be one of the largest publishers in the region, with a strong presence in India and the neighbouring countries, including Nepal, Sri Lanka and Bangladesh. Headquartered in Delhi-NCR, it has regional offices in Delhi, Kolkata, Chennai and Mumbai.
